

Your Baltimore City Medical Society Needs You!

Share your time, expertise and resources to enhance your Baltimore City Medical Society and MedChi, The Maryland State Medical Society. Take part in our inaugural LeaderUp; an opportunity for you to engage with your Baltimore City Medical Society to formulate policies, advocate for physicians and patients, develop programs and activities, and enhance governance.

From January through April 2025, engage with these opportunities to meet your BCMS leadership and share your experiences as a committee member, committee chair, board officer, board member, delegate/alternate delegate and more. We want you as a leader!

These opportunities await you:

- 1) Participate in a BCMS committee meeting
- 2) Attend a BCMS and/or BCMS Foundation board meeting or event
- 3) Invite a colleague to attend an event with you
- 4) Confer with the BCMS Caucus to MedChi
- 5) Host a physician networking event
- 6) Attend the annual MedChi and/or BCMS reception(s) in Annapolis
- 7) Volunteer as “Doc of the Day” for the Health Suite in Annapolis
- 8) Attend the April 2025 MedChi House of Delegates
- 9) Recruit a colleague to become a member of BCMS-MedChi
- 10) Share your career path with our students /residents/fellow

After completion of six (6) of the above activities, you will be presented a Certificate of Completion of the BCMS Inaugural LeaderUp 2025.
